Course Objectives: Basketball 1200-01 is an activity course for students interested in learning the basics of basketball, including skills such as dribbling, passing, shooting, and team offense and defense, as well as knowledge of the game. Designed to give students playing time, increase knowledge of basketball, and improve individual skill levels.

Required Textbook (s) /Recommended Books/other materials: None. However, proper athletic attire is required for this course, and failure to comply will result in a deduction of points.

Department Objectives:

All PEHR courses have the following learning outcomes:

- A. Enhance development of physical, mental, social, and emotional well-being through physical education;
- B. Be supported to develop personal, lifelong commitment to physical activity for the long range health benefits;
- C. Develop competencies in athletic activities that will bring greater satisfaction to participation in athletics;
- D. Demonstrate an understanding of physiology that promotes safety in physical exercise;
- E. Develop a fitness plan pertinent to the physical activity of the course, as applicable

Course Assignments and Assessments:

- A. Attendance: 5 points per day, 150 points total. Students are expected to be to class on time.

- B. One out of class assignment will be given, worth 25 points. The assignment will be handed out on November 5th and will be due on December 2nd.
- C. Final Exam: 25 Points
- D. Total: 200 Points
- E. Any student who has 100% attendance at the end of the semester will automatically be awarded full credit for the final exam.

Instructor policy on late assignments, missed exams/quizzes, and unexcused absences: An assignment turned in after the due date will be docked five points for each class day that it is late. If a student informs the instructor of an absence beforehand there will be an opportunity to make up for the missed points upon the student's return. Students will not be able to make up points for unexcused absences.
